The Sixth Annual Session of the American Society.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN PRESENT

From All Parts of This Country and Canada-The Great Work of the Organization-Its Start and Growth. Scotch-Irish Achlevements in America-The Makers of History, North and South-Distinguished Men who are Members.

Special Disputch to the Intelligencer.
DES MOINES, IOWA, Juno 7.—The sixth annual session of the Congress of the Scotch-Irish Society, of America, was called to order in the Y. M. C. A. hall at 10 o'clock this morning by Hon. P. M. Cassady, vice president for Iowa, the hall being crowded to suffication. An address of welcome was delivered by Governor Jackson, of Iowa; to which the President of the Society, Robert Bonner, of New York, responded. The three days sitting of the Congress promiso to be the most interesting of the six sessions, this being the centre of a large Scotch-Irish settlement, the people

Scotch-Irish settlement, the people coming from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Illinois. The Scotch-Irish society, which hasbecome one of great importance and of vast influence in Evo years, was founded at Columbia, Team, by Colonel T. T. Wright, of Nashville, a gentleman of great personal worth, of wide acquaintanceship and noble impulses, who as early as 1836, recognizing the fact that there was no written history of the Scotch-Irish race in America. fact that there was no written history of the Scotch-Irish race in America, suggested to A. T. Stewart, the first American merchant prince, a noted example of Scotch-Irish business capability, that there ought to be a record made of Scotch-Irish achievement in this country, for an investigation would show it to be as important as that of show it to be as important as that of any other blood. Mr. Stewart insisted, and promised material aid in the work, and promised material aid in the work, that Colonel Wright organize the race into a society similar to the Puritan and Dutch historical associations, which have been most active in preserving history. Colonel Wright at that time was also overwhelmed with business cares and did not undertake the task until 1889, when the call was issued for a meeting in Columbia, Tenn., at which time and place the organization was time and place the organization was effected, with Robert Bonner as presi-dent and A. C. Floyd, of Columbia, secretary, the call having been responded to by distinguished men of the race from all the states.

THE ORIECT. The object of the association is purely historical, the task in hand being to gather data of Scotch-Irish achievement in America, so such historical facts may be preserved in enduring print. Col. Wright also had in view the hope that it he brought together in such a society the makers of history north and south, the makers of history north and south, in a social way, they would learn they were of one blood, with a result of better understanding and an end to the disgraceful warfare that continued between the sections after the sword had been beaten into a pruning hook. The society is non-political and and non-sectarian, there being in its membership men of all shades of religious thought and political bins, including the Churchman and the Congregationalist, the Catholic and the Covenanter, Republican, Democrat, Prohibitionist and Populist. To-day it has in its membership more distinguished men of all walks of life than can be found on the rolls of any other like organization—among them, Vice President Stevenson, ex-Secretary of the Senate Gen. Anson G. McCook, Gen. John McCook, Senator Lindsay, ex-Gov. Campbell, Gov. McKinley, Senator Enice, ex-Secretary Charles Foster, Senator Cameron and Congressman Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, ex-Senator McMillian, of Michigan, Gov. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, Gov. Jackson and Judge P. M. Cassady, of Iowa, Judge Scott, of Illinois, Hon. Benton McMillen, of Tennessee, Dr. Hervey McDowell, of Kentucky, Hon. Joseph F. Johnson, of Alabama, Judge Gitmore and Gen. Beatty, of Ohio; Idev. Dr. Bryson, Alabama; Dr. John Hall, of New York; Wm. Preston Johnston, of Louisiana: Prof. A. L. Perry, of williams (Mass.) college; Prof. McLoskie, of Princeton; Prof. W. A. White, Washington-Lee University; Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, of Mississippi; Col. McClure, Philadelphia Times; John Frew, Wheeling Inventances; J. King McLannan, the noted Pennsylvania engineer; Hon. A. T. Wood, of Hamilton, Ont.; Wm. Wirt Henry, of Tenn.; Gov. Northern, of Georgia; Gov. Hogg, of Texas. There are members from each state in the union, all of whom are more or less prominent in some line of human action. in a social way, they would learn they were of one blood, with a result of betman action.

A GREAT WORK.

In speaking of the result of the great work inaugurated by Col. Wright, remarked a member to-day, Col. McClure in a recent address said that just provious to the first meeting he had occavious to the first meeting he had occasion to look for a work on the Scotch-Irish race in America, but could find it nowhere, not a line recording Scotch-Irish achievement could be found although he searched the Congressional library. And yet, he said, the New England libraries contain hundreds of volumes recording the story of the Puritan, while here was a race that was first in all great works without a written history!—the race that gave the nation its independence; that first conceived and expressed the determined purpose to sever the colations between purpose to sever the relations between the American colonies and the British the American colonies and the British crown, and it did it on three different occasions in three different states. Up to the auspicious fruition of Col. Wright's conception there had been no people who had written so little and had achieved so much. The race owes the founder of this society the fullest measure of gratitude. Since then five volumes, the proceeding of the annual meetings have been issued and accepted as authority by such painstaking his meetings have been issued and accepted as authority by such painstaking historian as Douglas Campbell, the author of "The Paritan in Holland, England and America."

The influence of the society has been seen in the fact that when Vice President Hendricks died no mention was made of his Scotch-Irish ancestry, but six years after when Secretary Blaine died, all the newspaper obituaries gave his blood credit for the traits of character that made him a factor in national affairs. The Scotch-Irish fathers cared not for glory: achievement for the sake ter that made him a factor in national affairs. The Scotch-Irish fathers cared not for glory; achievement for the sake of material results were their aim. They led stormy lives so they might enjoy tranquility, that goal few attain. Before the formation of this society few people knew that Thomas Jefferson, Alexander Hamilton, Patrick Henry, George Rogers Clarke, Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, U. S. Grant, Stonewall Jackson, Oliver Hazzard Perry, Cyrus McCormick, Morse, Erickson, Fulton, Horace Greely, James G.

Dlaine, among the most noted men in American history, were of this race. It was not known by many that the convention forming the American constitution was largely composed of Scotch-Irishmen, the most eminent leaders in the body being Alexander Hamilton, James Madison and John Rufege. In formulating the republic the Scotch-Irish was the most active race of ali.

A NOTED CROOK.

An Old Man Who Was Asphyslated in Baltimore identified. Baltimone, Mp., June 7.—The old man supposed to be Alexander Stewart, who was asphyxinted by gas on Monday. is said to be none other than Edward Lillie, at one time one of the most notorious confidence men, forgers and boarding house thioves in the country. His picture adorns the pages of "Criminals of America." He was known as Henry A. Watson throughout this country and Canada as a most accomplished crook. He was arrested in New York in 1875 for getting $600 worth of furniture for a worthless check of $750 and received $150 in change. For this he got two years and six months in prison. His next exploit was in 1879, when he stole money and jewelry to the extent of $1,000 from a boarding house in Washington square, New York. In this case there was a lack of evidence and Lillic went free. In 1885 he swindled a New Yorker out of $250 and an Englishman whom he met on an Anchor line strature out of $250 and an Englishman whom he met on an Anchor line torious confidence men, forgers and Yorker out of $250 and an Englishman whom he met on an Anchor line steamer out of 102 sovereigns. For this he served five years in the ponitentiary. Lillie afterward arrived in Baltimore. On January 9, 1890, he was picked up as a suspicious character and was ordered to leave town. A few daysatter he was again captured and ordered to give the city a wide berth. In early life Lillie was a tent and awning maker in Washington, and is believed to have been born either thore or in this city. Marks that led to Lillie's identification were the drawings of a stoop and an owl in the drawings of a sloop and an owl in India ink on his right arm.

Organization of a Republican Club-Other News Matters. A meeting was held at Harian hall for the purpose of organizing a club to be known as the B. B. Dovener Club of Littleton during the coming campaign. The meeting was called to order by Dr. J. F. Reger, and J. T. Echole was elected chairman and A. M. Crow secretary. The following permanent officers were elected: J. R. Bissett, president; N. S. Cumbridge, vice president; J. T. Echols, secretary; H. M. Crow, treasurer. Deleases the contract of the cont secretary; H. M. Crow, treasurer. Delegates to the convention at Fairmont: Dr. J. F. Reger and A. M. Crow; afternates, J. T. Echols and Edjah Albaugh. This club starts off with a membership of about forty. Later on it is proposed to organize a marching club. The meeting nights will be on each second Thursday at 8:30 p. m. until after July 4; thereafter the club will meet Thursday of each week until the close of the day of each week until the close of the campaign. Many more names will be added to the roll by the next meeting night, and some good work will be done
